

Pan African Urological Surgeon's Association

PAUSA

Association Panafricaine des Chirurgiens
Urologues

IVth International Congress
4^{ème} Congrès International

November 24 - 27, 1999
Hotel Meridien President
Dakar - Sénégal -

We report an unusual case of pseudo-tumoral kidney tuberculosis. A 53-years-old man was admitted for right lumbar pain. Radiological investigations (ultrasonography, pyelography and CT scan) were consistent with the diagnosis of right kidney tumor. The patient was operated through a lumbar incision. Intraoperatively the mass was found to be filled with caseum. The patient had a partial nephrectomy and pathological studies concluded to a renal pseudo-tumoral tuberculosis.